VOLUME CIX.—NO. 24. ALEXANDRIA, VA., TUESDAY EVENING, JANUARY 28, 1908. PRICE 2 CENTS

The Story of a Medicine.

Its name—"Golden Medical Discovery" was suggested by one of its most important and valuable ingredients — Golden Seal root.

Nearly forty years ago, Dr. Pierce discovered that he could, by the use of pure, triple-refined glycerine, aided by a certain degree of constantly maintained heat and with the aid of apparatus and appliances designed for that purpose, extract from our most valuable native medicinal roots their curative properties much better than by the use of alcohol, so generally employed. So the now world-famed "Golden Medical Discovery," for the cure of weak stomach, indigestion, or dyspepsia, torpid liver, or biliousness and kindred derangements was first made, as it ever since has been, without a particle of alcohol in its make-up.

A glance at the full list of its ingredients, printed on every bottle-wrapper, will show that it is made from the most valuable medicinal roots found growing in our American forests. All these ingredients have received the strongest endorsement from the leading medical experts, writers and writers on Materia Medica who recommend them as the very best remedies for the diseases for which "Golden Medical Discovery" is advised.

A little book of these endorsements has been compiled by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., and will be mailed free to any one asking same by postal card, or letter addressed to the Doctor as above. From these endorsements, copied from standard medical books of all the different schools of practice, it will be found that the ingredients composing the "Golden Medical Discovery" are advised not only for the cure of the above mentioned diseases, but also for the cure of all catarrhal, bronchial and throat affections, accompanied with catarrhal discharges, hoarseness, sore throat, lingering, or hang-on-coughs, and all those wasting affections which, if not promptly and properly treated are liable to terminate in consumption. Take Dr. Pierce's Discovery in time and persevere in its use until you give it a fair trial and it is not likely to disappoint. Too much must not be expected of it. It will not perform miracles. It will not cure consumption in its advanced stages. No medicine will. It will cure the affections that lead up to consumption, if taken in time.

FIFTEEN PERSONS PERISH.

Fifteen persons lost their lives off the Delaware Capes in the storm which swept the Atlantic coast on Thursday and Friday, three of them being women. Two women and four men were aboard the coal barge White Band, which sunk off the Capes after breaking loose from the tug U. E. Scully, which was towing it from Baltimore to Boston. Several barges which broke away from tugboats are missing.

The Virginia and North Carolina coast is in the grasp of a storm that has been sweeping the shores for three days, doing inestimable damage to shipping. Wires are reported in bad condition in many directions, though telegraph communication has not been interrupted to any appreciable extent. The storm in its early stages was accompanied by snow, which, in turn, gave place to high winds, which have endangered, and, in some cases, wrecked, vessels along the coast. Reports from Norfolk and Newport News for the last twenty-four hours have conveyed tidings of crippled and wrecked vessels and narrow escapes from death of those who manned them.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a Safe Medicine for Children.

In buying a cough medicine for children never be afraid to buy Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. There is no danger from it, and relief is always sure to follow. It is intended especially for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough, and there is no better medicine in the world for these diseases. It is not only a certain cure for croup, but, when given as soon as the croupy cough appears, will prevent the attack. Whooping cough is not dangerous when this remedy is given as directed. It contains no opium or other harmful drugs, and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by W. F. Creighton and Richard Gibson.

SEVEN BURN TO DEATH.

Seven colored persons, a death watch preceding a negro funeral, were burned to death and the body of a dead child cremated in a house that was destroyed by fire at Bedford City, Va., Sunday night.

Anthony Franklin was porter at the Elks' National Home. On Sunday his young daughter, Eula, died, and on that night, following a race custom, the seven negroes gathered as a watch for the dead in the room above where the child was laid out. It is supposed that their weight was too heavy for the frail floor timbers of the room, which collapsed, precipitating the watchers to the floor below, upon the child's coffin, where a burning lamp was overturned. A fierce wind was blowing and the house was immediately a mass of flames, making rescue impossible.

It is very important and in fact it is absolutely necessary to health that we give relief to the stomach promptly at the first signs of troubles. Take something once in a while; especially after meals; something like Kodol For Dyspepsia and Indigestion. It will enable your stomach to do its work properly. Sold by W. F. Creighton.

"To Keep Well

The whole year through," writes L. A. Bartlett, of Rural Route 1, Guilford, Me., "I and my family used Dr. King's New Life Pills. They have proven most satisfactory to all of us." They tone the system and cure biliousness, malaria and constipation. Guaranteed at all drug stores. 25c.

FIRE AT OCEAN VIEW.

That portion of the seaside resort, Ocean View, eight miles north of Norfolk, which was swept by fire two years ago, and which has just been rebuilt, was again burned over yesterday morning by a fire which is believed to have been of incendiary origin. The blaze started in a barber shop about 5 o'clock yesterday morning, and before it had been checked it had done damage estimated at $25,000. The Bay Shore Railway pavilions and bathhouses, a large part of the scenic railway, the Avoca Clubhouse and the handsome new cottage of Capt. W. S. Foster, of the Virginia Pilots' Association, together with all the summer sales booths and the boardwalk along the Chesapeake Bay beach front were destroyed. There is only partial insurance.

Kodol is the best remedy known today for dyspepsia, indigestion and all troubles arising from a disordered stomach. It is pleasant, prompt and thorough. Sold by W. F. Creighton.

THREE BOYS DROWNED.

Three boys were drowned and several others had narrow escapes yesterday morning when sliding in a pond at North Wilkesbarre, Pa. The fine-looking but treacherous ice tempted them on their way to school, and fearing that it was not quite safe, the boys first began skating near the edge. Finally John Swanson, John Verschak and Philip Geiger, each thirteen, bolder than the others, slid toward the center of the pond and the ice broke beneath their weight. Men from a nearby factory who saw the accident ran to the pond, but owing to the broken ice, could not reach the struggling boys. A boat was later procured and their bodies recovered.

DeWitt's Little Riser, Pills are sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup sets upon the bowels and thereby drives the cold out of the system. It contains no opiates—it is pleasant to take and is highly recommended for children. Sold by W. F. Creighton.

NEW YORK TRIBUNE.

The newspaper in the home is a necessity. Get one that can be safely read by the entire family. The Tribune is a paper that prints all the news of the world in such a manner as to be readable without offending the laws of good taste. It is a human paper—one edited by men and women; and while, at times, it may occasionally make mistakes, its readers believe and trust in it. There is nothing ever printed in The Tribune that will not instruct and educate, just as it is a fact there is nothing ever printed that will offend decency.

With The Sunday Tribune you get a handsome illustrated supplement of timely topics and a superb twenty page magazine with colored cover, which contains most interesting fiction and short stories by well known authors. This, with other sections, goes to make up one of the most complete and interesting Sunday Newspapers published.

The Daily and Sunday Tribune is the ideal family newspaper. A dollar bill sent to the Circulation Department of The Tribune, New York, will bring The Daily and Sunday Tribune into your family for one month. Or send $10 for one year.

AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

TUESDAY EVENING, JAN. 28, 1908.

EVIDENCE accumulates as the days go by that in the wake of the recent financial panic the country is face to face with an "unemployed" problem of serious proportions. For several weeks there has been a steady influx of idle men into all the great centers of population, overtaxing the various agencies of charity, while local labor bodies have taken notice of the clamor for relief in their own ranks. Socialist agitators have been quick to turn this situation to their party account by holding public meetings and insisting that it was what they had all along predicted as a consequence of the existing system of capitalism. Last week they organized processions of the unemployed in Boston, Cincinnati and other cities and aided the rent strike at New York. In St. Louis several hundred men marched to the City Hall and asked the mayor to give them work, and steps were taken to start street improvements for their benefit. The Central Federated Union of New York held a public mass meeting Thursday night, at which Comptroller Metz and other city officials were questioned as to why so many city contracts had been held up. At Chicago, it is estimated that nearly 150,000 workers are idle.

ACCORDING to a decision of the U. S. Supreme Court delivered yesterday, the right of the employe to quit the service of his employer for whatever reasons, is the same as the right of the employer, for whatever reasons, to dispense with the services of such employe. The above should have been as clear as the mid-day sun, and to have made it the duty of the Supreme Court to declare a self-evident fact seems to have been unnecessary. The case went up on a labor issue where a man, who belonged to a labor union, had been discharged, it being alleged that his dismissal was for no other reason than that he belonged to a union. Many laboring men acknowledge the equity of the decision. There seems to be more conservatism on the part of some labor leaders at present. In California a few days ago one of the trades' union organizations went on record against sympathetic strikes and boycotts. Such are also opposed by Mr. John Mitchell.

THE Sunday excursion bill is before the State Senate committee on roads, having been reported with a recommendation that it pass. It provides that the railroads shall not operate Sunday excursions or sell tickets on other days of the week which are to be used for return trips on Sunday trains. Under this bill people who cannot get away any other day in the week but Sunday, will be forced to remain in the cities and denied the opportunity of going to the country to spend the day. This would be a great deprivation to many and would accomplish little good. An occasional day spent in the country is a cheap but wholesome luxury, and many a hard worked city man is refreshed and invigorated thereby. Few men are forced to be good by laws.

THE extraordinary number of recruits now offering themselves for enlistment in the regular army sets at rest definitely all doubts that existed regarding the effect that a demand for labor in civil lines had in depleting the force. With the lessened call for labor elsewhere the army swells instantly. This change, due to altered economic conditions, first manifested itself in the marine corps, then in the navy and finally in the army, thus showing the relative attractiveness of the three branches to the man looking for a job.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT it is said will make a statement soon, to disprove reports that he has used the appointing power to aid the Taft boom. Although Mr. Roosevelt plices in the Aeanias Club all those who differ with him he will have a difficult task in making the public generally believe that he has not used the full power of the administration in favor of Secretary Taft's presidential candidacy.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, D. C., January 28.

Secretary of the Treasury Cortelyou has completed his official refutation of the senatorial charges that he violated the law by his recent issue of canal bonds and certificates of indebtedness and that he was guilty of favoritism in his distribution of public deposits. He will send to the Senate tomorrow his long expected reply to resolutions calling upon him for information relative to his methods of meeting the financial panic, particularly as to the bond issue and methods of allotment of public deposits, issuance by banks of clearing house certificates, condition of banks between October and December of last year and movement of currency for New York City and Washington to points south and west, gold imports and exports and methods of bank examinations and appointment of receivers. The Secretary's report will be supplemented by a statement analyzing the figures and an explanation of a somewhat personal character.

According to the statements of persons who were present last night at the first section of Senator Newland's instalment plan dinner to William Jennings Bryan and the democratic Senators' policies rather than politics were discussed. Mr. Bryan, it is said, took a back seat in the parlor conversation following the dinner, and listened to the arguments of his fellow guests on the proposition to make it clear to the country that many of the policies now advocated by President Roosevelt were first advanced by the democratic party. Mr. Bryan has authorized, through his personal representative in Washington, the statement that he is ready to accept the democratic nomination for President provided the rank and file of the party believe him to be the best and most available man to make the race; also that he will not be swayed in his judgment by the counsel of a few minor papers whose party loyalty is of doubtful character. The democratic Senators whose names begin with the letters of the alphabet from M to Z, will join Mr. Bryan at dinner tonight at Senator Newland's residence.

The Aldrich financial bill will not be reported from the Senate finance committee until next Thursday or possibly Monday. There was a brief session of the committee this morning but because of the absence of Secretary Cortelyou's response to the Senate resolution calling for information about recent Treasury operations the democratic members were not ready to take action on the bill. Chairman Aldrich was assured by Secretary Cortelyou that his reply would be in the hands of the committee by noon tomorrow. There will be another meeting of the finance committee this afternoon and probably one tomorrow afternoon.

The mania of a American millionaire girl for acquiring foreign titles, as illustrated in yesterday's marriage of Gladys Vanderbilt and Count Szechenyi, was the occasion for a speech of bitter denunciation in the House today by Representative Charles M. C. Gavin, of Chicago. He began by declaring that "as the House is in committee of the whole House on the state union, it may not be amiss to inquire what this State is coming to, in view of these international unions which are of such frequent occurrence of late between American heiresses and alleged nobilities from abroad." Mr. Gavin, among other things, said: "In thinking of these numerous weddings, I have wondered what the early pioneers who battled with the Indians, challenged the forest, and braved the winter's winds and snows to establish a government, where manhood might be recognized for its true value, instead of fortune or accident of birth, would say if from their graves they could look back and see so many of the women of this country sacrificing their souls and honor upon the altar of snobbery or vice."

From an authoritative source it is learned from Prof. Ira Remesen, of Johns Hopkins University, will head the board of five scientists who are to form the consulting committee on the enforcement of the pure food and drugs laws, created last week by President Roosevelt. The remaining members of the board are not yet definitely decided upon.

The American Breeders' Association convened here today for its fourth annual session, with a large number of scientists, stockmen and breeders in attendance. The organization will be in session three days, and during that time will hear some interesting addresses by delegates from all over the country. The association deals with the application of the laws of heredity to the propagation of animal, plant, and insect life.

The French-American trade agreement, whereby certain tariff concessions are made by one nation to the other and which has been under consideration for months was signed at the State Department today by Ambassador Jusserand on the part of France, and by Secretary of State Root for the United States. Later in the day the president will issue a proclamation putting the agreement into effect.

Secretary of War Taft will leave the city tonight for Cleveland, O., where he will be the guest of honor tomorrow night at the McKinley Day banquet of the Tippecanoe Club, of that city, before which the Secretary will deliver an address.

President Roosevelt sent a message to Congress today making an earnest appeal for a pension roll for the life-saving service.

Mr. Carlin has introduced a bill in the House granting an increase of pension to John Bowers, and granting an increase of pension to Emma M. Heines.

News of the Day.

Miss Florence Padelford, formerly of Baltimore, and the Hon. Robert Grosvenor, of England, will be married next Saturday in London.

It is rumored that Architect M. Huston, accused of grafting in connection with the Harrisburg, Pa., Capitol job, may make a clean breast of it.

Russia has again called Turkey down for the occupation of Suj Bulak in Persia, and Russian troops are being moved from Tiflis to the frontier.

Mgr. Daniel J. O'Connell, rector of the Catholic University, will be consecrated Titular Bishop of Sebate in the Baltimore Cathedral, probably the third week in April.

President Mitchell announced to the convention of the United Mine Workers of America yesterday in Indianapolis that he did not desire to hold any office in the organization after his retirement as president April 1.

Hermann Robert Schade, a lawyer and short-story writer, who died Saturday at Garfield Hospital in Washington, was buried in Prospect Hill Cemetery yesterday afternoon. Mr. Schade is survived by his mother, Mrs. Anna Schade, and one brother and three sisters.

Mrs. Florence Caliche, a handsomely dressed woman, who had taken precautions to hide her identity, threw herself before a Ninth avenue "L" train at Sixty-sixth street and Columbus avenue, New York, yesterday, and was instantly killed. Her daughter, Tillie Caliche, said her mother's suicide was due to her having lost $2,000 in a financial venture last week. Mrs. Caliche's husband is a traveling salesman.

At the dinner given by Senator Newlands in Washington last night to halt the democratic membership of the Senate, and at which Mr. Bryan was the guest of honor, the only matters discussed pertained to legislation and the party policy on measures that were suggested. Neither Mr. Bryan's candidacy nor the question whether he should be a candidate came in for discussion at all. This phase of democratic politics was not referred to even indirectly or remotely.

A blow was given Secretary Taft's presidential boom yesterday afternoon by Senator Hale, of Maine, when as a result of a discussion in the Senate on the slavery laws it developed through some adroit words of the Senator that slavery and polygamy flourished on certain islands in the Philippines with the full knowledge and consent of Secretary Taft, and that the lords of those islands were on the payroll of the United States, in accordance with treaties made between them and officers of the army, acting under Secretary Taft's orders.

As a result of a fire which today destroyed the glass bottling tank of The Wheaton Company's plant at Millville, N. J., two hundred persons are thrown out of employment. The loss by the fire was $30,000.

MR. BRYAN HOLDS RECEPTION.

William J. Bryan yesterday held an impromptu reception in the rooms of the House committee on ways and means at the Capitol.

Asked to name his choice for a running mate in the event of his nomination at Denver, Mr. Bryan laughingly replied:

"I shant tell. That is too bold a question."

To the newspaper men he said:

"You may say that my coming to Washington was not to consult any men or set of men as to whether or not I ought to be a candidate for the nomination. I have not put that question to any man, nor shall I. The people, not individuals have the sole right to decide that point. I am not here to solicit support for myself, as a possible presidential candidate. I never ask individual support, I never ask any man to vote for me. In the past when I was before the people as a candidate, my efforts to obtain votes have been confined to statements of my views."

Asked about the story published in some quarters that former United States Senator Jones, Oliver P. Belmont and others came to him a day or so ago and told him he was not the logical candidate for the democratic nomination, urged him not to run and promised to oppose him if their advice should be disregarded, Mr. Bryan said:

"There is not a shred of truth in the story. No one has advised me not to be a candidate, I saw Senator Jones, and we did talk politics, but nothing of the sort reported occurred."

Mr. Bryan before leaving the Capitol dictated, in response to a request, the following interview setting forth his views on the financial situation:

"Lack of public confidence is what drives money out of circulation. Restore public confidence, and money returns to its accustomed channels. For lack of confidence the best remedy is insurance of bank deposits and I have urged upon the various States and Congress the passage of some measure similar to the law adopted by Oklahoma. This provides for the creation of a guaranty fund by assessments upon banks in proportion to their deposits, and authorizes the banking board to make such assessments from time to time as may be necessary to restore the guaranty fund when it is lowered by the payment of money to depositors of failed banks.

"This permits the resources of all the banks to be the resources of each bank, and insures each depositor against loss. The Oklahoma statute permits national banks to take advantage of the State law and a national law should permit State banks to come in under the provisions of that law in States which have no guaranty systems.

"As to an elastic currency. I think provision could be made for sufficient elasticity in times of emergency by a law providing for the issue of United States notes, such notes to be loaned by the goverment to the banks upon adequate security and at a rate of interest which would compel the retirement of the notes when the emergency is over. I suppose nearly all members of Congress and Senators favor some provision for an emergency currency. The democrats as a rule favor a system under which the goverment will issue and control the value of emergency currency, while most republicans favor some system under which it would be issued and controlled by the banks. This presents the point in dispute between the two parties. The high financiers have been largely responsible for the present panic by reason of their reckless methods; and I am satisfied that a large majority of the people would prefer to risk the goverment rather than risk these men. Somebody must decide upon the needs of the people, and so far as I am concerned I prefer that the concessions be with the public officers responsible to the public, rather than with private individuals who would be guided by their own interests instead of by the interests of the public."

THE RAILROAD TRAINS

Alexandria, Jan. 27, 1908.

To the Editor of the Alexandria Gazette.

Referring to my article in the Gazette of the 24th and the statement of railroad officials in the Gazette of the 25th that the trains mentioned will stop at Alexandria for passengers going to or arriving from Charlottesville and points south, at which scheduled to stop, I find orders to this effect now exist.

The fact still remains, however, that Alexandria is a flag station for 5 out of 8 southbound and 5 out of 8 northbound Southern Railway trains, and that these 10 out of 16 trains will not carry local passengers between Alexandria and Washington, according to the present schedule.

As the Union station is in Fairfax county and outside of the corporate limits of Alexandria city, I understand Southern Railway local tickets will in the future read "Alexandria Station."

Respectfully,
D. J. HOWELL.

THE ANT.

Facts About One of Natures Most Industrious Creatures.

When spring comes with all its wealth of opening buds and new flowers, the ant is preparing for a season of profitable industry.

It comes out of its winter quarters and locates a new home where it can store away, during the summer months, the sustenance for the long winter days.

Just as industrious as the ant—but in a different way—are the countless infinitisemal germs which burrow into the scalp and eat away at the roots of the hair.

As they burrow away Dandruff forms, and if the germs are not all killed, Baldness results.

Newbro's Herpicide is the only known remedy which kill the germs.

Mr. Jas. E. Blackwell, sr., died Thursday at his home near Moss Neck, Caroline county, aged 64 years.

Two children of Mary Scott, colored, were burned to death in bed yesterday morning in a cabin on the farm belonging to the estate of J. J. Sale, in King George county.

Two additional banks will be opened in the Northern Neck this week—one at Sharks Wharf, in Richmond county, on the Rappahannock river, and the other at Kinsale, Westmoreland county, on the Potomac river.

A tablet to the memory of Gen. R. E. Lee has been placed in the Episcopal Church at Orange Courthouse in the pew which was occupied by General Lee in the civil war during the time his army was camping at that place.

Mrs. Martha V. King, widow of John R. King, died in her home, in Washington, on Sunday. Her remains were buried at Dumfries today. Mrs. King was a daughter of the late James V. Nash, of Prince William county.

Left alone with other children for a few moments while the mother was busy, Harry Keller, the son of Hugh Keller, of Strasburg, was fatally burned yesterday, his clothing becoming ignited at a fireplace. He lived only a few hours.

The State Corporation Commission was yesterday engaged in hearing the cases against the Adams and Southern Express Companies for infraction of the rules of the commission in demanding, collecting and accepting more than the prescribed charges fixed by the commission.

The resignation of Major C. Gray Boisseaux, of Richmond, has been accepted by the governor and Adjutant-General Anderson. Major Boisseux started his military career thirty-two years ago as a private and has held every office in the regiment up to that of major.

Senator Noel and Senator Chase have received and have shown to the newspaper men letters from well known lawyers endorsing the course of Senator Noel in making the charges against Judge Rhea and urging him to stand by his guns and to oppose the confirmation of Judge Rhea.

The residence of S. A. McKee, justice of the peace, living near Greenville, Augusta county, burned yesterday with most of the contents, and two children perished in the flames. They were the young daughters of the cook, Lizzie Long, a white woman. Four hundred dollars in money was burned.

Joseph P. Brady, clerk of the United States Circuit Court in the Eastern district of Virginia, will succeed the late George E. Bowden as clerk of the United States District Court for the Eastern district of Virginia. Mr. Brady will hold both clerkships and will maintain his chief office in Richmond.

The fourth annual report of the library board of the Virginia State Library, to which is appended the fourth annual report of the State Libraran, which has just been submitted to the governor, shows the institution to be in a most flourishing condition, under State Librarian Dr. Henry R. McIlwaine.

The large plant of the Purcellville Foundry Company, at Purcellville, was totally destroyed by fire yesterday. The plant is owned by the Purcellville Foundry Company. All the buildings, fixtures, patterns and molds were entirely destroyed. The cause of the fire is unknown, and the loss is estimated at about $8,500.

Cured of Lung Trouble.

"It is now eleven years since I had a narrow escape from consumption," writes C. O. Floyd, a leading business man of Kershaw, S. C. "I had run down in weight to 135 pounds, and coughing was constant, both by day and by night. Finally I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery, and continued this for about six months, when my cough and lung trouble were entirely gone and I was restored my normal weight, 170 pounds." Thousands of persons are healed every year. Guaranteed at all drug stores. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Sixtieth Congress.

Washington, Jan. 28.

SENATE.

The Senate today agreed to a resolution extending the privileges of the floor to Benito Legarda and Pablo Ocamo, resident commissioners appointed by the Philippine assembly.

Senator Perkins presented a memorial from over 2,500 representative citizens and 554 volunteer soldiers of the civil war, all of California, asking Congress to provide a volunteer retired list. The memorials were bound in two cloth volumes.

The Senate passed a bill creating a medical corps and a medical reserve corps in the army, headed by a surgeon general, with rank of brigadier general. Senator Warren, in charge of the measure, was out of the chamber when it was taken up. When he came in, followed by a clerk who carried a stack of documentary ammunition with which to meet expected opposition, he heard that the bill had gone through as slick as a whistle. He laughingly sent the books back.

HOUSE.

Mr. Fitzgerald unloaded all responsibility for the recent panic and the threatening $100,000 deficiency in the Treasury. He called this an unscrupulous administration and one that the voters would put a few crimps into next November.

"How have you republicans handled this panic?" asked Mr. Johnson (dem. S. C.). "By violating the law," he thundered in reply. "Your Secretary of the Treasury issued certificates of indebtedness without authority of law and increased the interest bearing debt. This Washington government is a long ways from the people and not a member of this body would approve his home town borrowing of money while it had plenty of funds in its treasury."

FROM THE ANTILLES.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy Benefits a City Councilman at Kingston, Jamaica.

Mr. W. O'Reilly Fogarty, who is a member of the City Council at Kingston, Jamaica, West Indies, writes as follows:

One bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy had good effect on a cough that was giving me trouble and I think I should have been more quickly relieved if I had continued the remedy. That it was beneficial and quick in relieving me there is no doubt and it is my intention to obtain another bottle." For sale by W. F Creighton and Richard Gibson.

The Legislature.

Governor Swanson yesterday submitted to both branches of the General Assembly a detailed report as to the litigation concerning the two-cent passenger rate and its present status in the courts. In this paper the executive makes absolutely no suggestion as to any compromise, although he does allude to that agreement with the railroads whereby the two-cent rate is to remain in force until the cases are finally adjudicated. Governor Swanson calls attention in his paper to the employment of Senator Daniel and Hon. Allen Caperton Braxton as associate counsel for the State, and he asks the Legislature to see that they are properly compensated. He likewise asks the necessary appropriations to pay the court costs, the expense of giving the railroads indemnifying bonds, etc.

SENATE.

Very few bills were offered, none of them being of striking importance.

Bills on the calendar were taken up and given a reading to advance them. There were none ready for passage.

Senator Strode requested that Senate bill 37, concerning the operation of freight trains on Sunday, be recommitted to the committee on roads. This bill is the one which prohibits running of excursion trains on Sunday.

Senator Noel presented a joint resolution calling on Governor Swanson to transmit to the joint committee on confirmation of executive appointment all letters, resolutions and communications received by him with reference to the appointment of Judge William F. Rhea to be Corporation Commissioner.

HOUSE

Speaker Byrd offered a bill which requires all foreign corporations doing business in Virginia to pay a privilege tax, in addition to the property and registration taxes, and that each company doing such business shall furnish to the corporation commission prior to Sept. 1 of each year, the maximum capital stock authorized by their charter.

A bill tending to further restrict the management of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac, was offered by Mr. Curlett. The main object of the bill is to prohibit any incorporated company, either as a trustee or in any other capacity, from voting stock held by it in any capacity in any railroad company in which the State may be interested as a stockholder. The measure, moreover, provides that such stock shall be voted by a proxy to be appointed by the State Corporation Commission and it is understood that the bill is especially aimed at the Pennsylvania Railroad Company.

Mr. Pullman would extend the pure food law to commercial feeding stuffs. He presented a bill which regulates the sale and inspection of all such stuffs, and its purpose is to prevent the adulteration of food for domestic animals. The penalty under the act is limited to a fine not exceeding $50 and a jail sentence of thirty days. The bill requires that the inspections be made by the commissioner of agriculture and immigration, or under his supervision, and fixes the compensation at 15 cents per ton. The bill is the same as has been introduced in the upper house by Senator Early.

Mr. Adams, pioneer of the movement to allow counties in the State to issue bonds for road improvement, in a bill offered yesterday asks that his county be privileged to raise $100,000 in this manner.

In 1904, Mr. Adams introduced a bill under which five miles of macadamized road were built, and this was the first road constructed in Virginia by this plan. It is probable that other representatives will follow Mr. Adams in thus providing for the betterment of roads.

Mr. Markham, introduced an important bill to amend section 444 of the Code of Virginia, as to correction of erroneous assessment of lands.

Mr. West presented a bill, the object of which is to secure an appropriation to pay the expenses incident to the investigation of charges against Judge William F. Rhea. The bill provides that the act, an emergency existing, shall take effect from its passage. Captain West is chairman of the joint committee.

DEATH OF NORMAN GALT.

Norman Galt, forty-four years old, proprietor of one of the oldest and one of the largest jewelry stores in Washington, died last night at his residence in that city.

Mr. Galt was born in Washington, April 30, 1868. His father was the late Matthew W. F. Galt, in business in that city for many years. The store which descended to Mr. Norman Galt from his father was one of the historic enterprises of Washington, and was established in the days when Jefferson occupied the White House.

In 1895 Mr. Galt married Miss Edith Bolling, daughter of the late Judge W. H. Bolling, of Wytheville.

Mr. Galt was widely known throughout Washington. He was regarded not only by his friends, but by all who had occasion to meet him in business or in social life, as a man of great intelligence and pleasing personality.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Edith Bolling Galt; one sister, Mrs. Reginald Fendall, and a brother, Sperling Galt.

CONGRESSIONAL.

The penal code bill afforded the opportunity in the Senate yesterday to criticise the admininistration of Philippine island affairs on the ground that slavery still existed in some of the islands.

The American Bankers' Association's financial bill was introduced in the Senate.

Several bills of minor importance were passed, including one increasing the sum allowed for the rental of quarters for the Forestry Bureau.

In committee of the whole, the House yesterday considered the Sims bills for temporary tracks to the Union station, and the Fowler currency bill, without arriving at any conclusion on either. Chairman Fowler explained his elastic currency measure.

Today's Telegraphic News.

Adverse Labor Decision.

Washington, Jan. 28.—Labor champions are showing the effects of the blow given their cause by the decision of the U. S. Supreme Court yesterday, declaring unconstitutional that section of the Erdman act of June 1, 1898, which prohibits railroads engaged in interstate commerce from discriminating against employees because they belong to labor unions. When the same court, three weeks ago, erased from the statute books the La Follette employers liability act, labor leaders were chagrined, but set to work without delay to have the present Congress pass another act that would prove constitutional. A week ago, a second blow came, when the court refused to put a stop to "government by injunction" by reviewing an injunction against striking seamen on the Pacific coast. With the latest decision, the leaders of organized labor are plainly perplexed as to what course to pursue. It was one of the most sweeping decisions ever handed down by the Supreme Court.

The satisfaction with which representatives of capital received the court's opinion yesterday, was expressed by a corporation attorney, who had listened to Justice Harlan pronounce the section to be an arbitray interference with the right of contract, not justified in a free land.

"Thank God, there is still a bulwark in this country, where capital may get its rights, exclaimed the lawyer."

Little hope is entertained that another law can be enacted which will obviate the objections raised by the court. The objection that it is class legislation might be removed by making it a crime to discriminate against an employe because he was not a member of a union, but this would be to purchase protection by recognition of the open shop, a remedy most as bitter as the injury it seeks to end.

Still, there would remain the feature of interference with the liberty and property rights of the railroads, and so long as only Justice Peckham is inclined to deem such liberty and property rights the "mere whims and caprices of the railroads," such a new law would undoubtedly meet the same fate as the Erdman section.

The other sections of the Erdman law provide the arbitration machinery under which Chairman Knapp, of the Interstate Commerce Commission, and Commissioner of Labor Neill have settled during the last year, several labor disputes on Interstate railroads. The court made it plain that these sections were not involved in yesterday's decision, and they will remain on the statute books.

Washington, Jan. 29.—President Gompers of the American Federation of Labor is preparing a statement on the recent decisions of the Supreme Court and lesser tribunals which have dealt the cause of labor such staggering blows.

The Thaw Trial.

New York, Jan. 28.—When court opened in the Thaw trial today both Jerome and his assistants were prepared to hurry through their rebuttal evidence. While none of it had been forecasted and will not be until several witnesses are sworn, it is a fact that Jerome is well pleased over the situation.

There is no likelihood of Thaw going free. Prior to the first trial Jerome was, it was said, willing to have a commission declare White's slayer insane and send him to a hospital. But this was opposed by Thaw and his family, who believed a plea of chivalrous conduct would influence a New York jury and secure Thaw's absolute freedom. That was tried and failed.

Littleton, one of the cleverest of criminal lawyers, when called in, realizing there was grave danger of conviction of murder in the first degree, set out to prove Thaw's insanity. He has done so, apparently to the satisfaction of himself and possibly also of the prosecution.

H. F. Balez, a publisher; Paul Brude, fireman of the city department, and Warner Faxton, the engineer at the Garden, all of whom witnessed the tragedy, were quickly sworn today. They declared that Thaw seemed rational. They occupied the stand but a brief period of time.

Several other witnesses also testified.

Jerome has decided not to call any medical experts in rebuttal and at noon announced he only desired to dispose of the Hummel matter before closing his rebuttal.

The case, it is said, will go to the jury tomorrow.

Death of Cardinal Richard.

Paris, Jan. 28.—Cardinal Richard, Archbishop of Paris, one of the best known Catholic clergymen in Europe, is dead of congestion of the lungs.

Cardinal Richard was 89 years old. He was strong and vigorous almost until the last, however, and the illness which cost him his life was of but a few days' duration. His age was recognized as counting heavily against him, and extreme unction was administered early today. The Pope telegraphed his blessing from Rome, but not before the aged Cardinal breathed his last.

Cardinal Richard died just as the attendant priests had concluded the celebration of mass in the chapel adjoining his bed chamber.

He had passed a comparatively comfortable night, but grew rapidly weaker toward dawn, and, calling the priests about him, asked the prayers for the dying.

Listening attentively to the service he seemed to gain strength, and even sat propped in bed that he might watch through the open door the celebration of mass which followed. As his coadjutor pronounced the benediction the Cardinal fell back dead.

Bombs in Chicago.

Chicago, Jan. 28—That the war with bombs has not ceased in the gambling fraternity of this city was shown last night when the fifteenth explosion of the series occurred at the saloon and gambling house of Edward F. Brennan. Today the police are searching the vicinity for a man "short of stature, wearing a derby hat." Brennan declares there has been no gambling in his place during the Busse administration, and is at a loss to account for the attack. It is recalled, however, that he testified against "Paddy" Grimes before the grand jury last November.

The Countess of Yarmouth's Charges.

London, Jan. 28.—That the Earl of Yarmouth was already married when he wedded her, besides being physically unfit for matrimony, will be charged, it is whispered, in the Countess of Yarmouth's suit to be heard in camera next month for annulment of her marriage to the Earl

While the statement of the grounds on which the suit is to be based can be attributed to more than rumor at present, there is nevertheless no doubt that the current reports are correct. In English legal circles it is the general opinion that the countess's chance of making out her case is a very small one.

The first accusation will be based on evidence which the countess's attorneys think will show that the Earl eloped with an actress to Scotland a decade ago and exchanged declarations with her before two witnesses that they were husband and wife, a legal marriage according to the Scotch law.

The ceremony is said by the countess's advisors to have been shortly followed by a separation by mutual consent, but without a divorce. It will be asserted that the woman received a sum of money to make separation permanent, took up her residence in Paris and died there some time ago.

Saved by a Dog.

Great Barrington, Mass., Jan. 28.—A dog's barking saved six lives early today when fire destroyed the beautiful residence of John Pell. Pell, his three year-old son Everett, Robert Clarke, a New York artist, who was a guest at the house, and three servant girls were in the building. All were sound asleep when the house dog's furious barking aroused Mr. Pell. He left his bed to see what the trouble was and found the house filled with smoke. Seizing his little son he aroused the others. The family was on an upper floor, and in trying to escape down the stairway they found their way cut off by flames. Pell led them to a balcony and they leaped to the ground, escaping unhurt. The loss amounts to $23,000.

Another Setback for Foraker.

Columbus, O., Jan. 28.—The constitution of the Bronson primary election law and the fairness of the call for the Ohio republican presidential primaries to be held February 11, were sustained by the Supreme Court today in two cases under review.

Prosecutor Welty, who represented the efforts of Senator Foraker to set aside for the call of the State primaries, says he will appeal to the Supreme Court of the United States.

Under the decision the primaries may now be held free from any question of their legality unless the United States Supreme Court shall enjoin them.

Count and Countess Szechnyi.

Newport, R. I. Jan 28.—Count Szechnyi and his bride, who was Miss Gladys Vanderbilt, are not in Newport, and no one here seems to know where they have begun their honeymoon unless it is at the home of Harry Payne Whitney at Westbury, L. I. A rumor here is that when the wedding ceremony was concluded Count and Countess Szechnyi were whirled away to Harry Payne Whitney's summer home on Long Island.

Americans Entertained.

Buenos Ayres, Jan. 28.—President Alcerta, Minister of War Fraga, Minister of Marine Bethedermes and Minister of Foreign Affairs Zeballos received the officers of the American torpedo boat Flotilla today. To Lieut. Cone, commanding the Flotilla, President Alcerta expressed the pleasure the United States vessels' visit gives Argentina and voiced his hope for relations of still closer friendship.

Seeking Aid of Madstone.

St. Louis, Jan. 48.—Four persons came to St. Louis today to seek the aid of a madstone in warding off threatened attacks of hydrophobia from a mad dog at Mariss, Ill. Altogether eight persons were bitten before the dog was killed. The dog leaped at the throats of his victims in each case.

Fire caused about $100,000 damage at the Standard Oil Company's Canton plant near Baltimore yesterday. Two oil tanks, each with a capacity of 10,000 barrels, were destroyed, and three others were damaged. Michael R. Kennedy, a yard superintendent, was struck by a falling pipe and his skull was broken. City firemen helped the county companies and employes to fight the fire. At an early hour this morning one tank was still burning.

Jas. H. Dabney vs. Thos. H. Brown; petition for recovery of certain property claimed by plaintiff; jury and case in progress.

CHARGED WITH LUNACY.

Officer Sherwood yesterday arrested a young colored man named James Beal, on a charge of lunacy. Beal, it appears, imagines he is inspired, and yesterday morning, instead of repairing to a brook and waiting to be fed by ravens, he entered the cook shop adjoining the station house, saying he had been told to go there and wait until the food was cooked for him. Upon being questioned Beal said he had been warned by the Lord to avoid the station house. He further stated that his actions were governed entirely by the Diety, and should the Lord tell him to kill a man he would not hesitate to carry out the mandate. Officer Sherwood concluded that the darkey was irresponsible and that it would be unsafe to allow him to roam the city at will, and conducted him to the place he had been told to avoid. Notwithstanding his alleged spirituality, when Officer Roberts addressed the darkey this morning he told him to go to a place all desire to steer clear of. Beal was brought before Justice Caton in the Police Court this morning and committed for further examination.

THE MIDGETS CASE.

Mr. Howard W. Smith, one of the counsel for George Midgets, sentenced to be hanged Friday, February 14, has received a letter from Constable Taliaferro, of Stafford county, stating that the mother of a colored man who was present when Charles T. Smith was killed in this city had positively stated that her son had said Midgets is not the man who had done the shooting. The letter stated that the man who had witnessed the shooting is now in Prince William county, and urged one of the counsel to go to that county and interview him. An impression prevails that Midgets will hang. Before a reprieve was granted him Governor Swanson stated that he had never interfered with an execution in a case where the trial judge and the commonwealth's attorney failed to ask clemency. As neither of these officials have asked Governor Swanson to commute the sentence of Midgets the impression, as stated above, is that he will hang.

THE BROOKES-WATKINS AFFAIR

There are practically no new developments in the Brookes-Watkins affair, and there is every reason to believe that it has about run its nine-days' wonder. Mayor Paff last night received a dispatch from Frank B. Perry, Mayor of Orange, which stated that the young man and young woman were still at the Parrott Hotel at that place, where they are registered as man and wife. A sister of the bride, accompanied by a male relative, who went to Orange yesterday when it was definitely ascertained the couple were at that place, returned home last night. The sister brought a letter from Mrs. Brookes to her mother. The couple said they had been married at Orange. Mr. and Mrs. Brookes said they will return to this city as soon as the comment caused by their disappearance shall have subsided, and asked that the announcement of their marriage be made. They are expected by their relatives and friends to reach this city some time today or tomorrow.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

William Padgett, charged with stealing beer from the Portner Brewing Company, was fined $5.

James Beal, colored, charged with lunacy, was committed for ten days.

A young white man, charged with disorderly conduct, was dismissed.

Patrick Lynch, John Sweeney, John Smith and Thomas Leddy, charged with a similar offense, were fined $2.50 each.

DANCE LAST NIGHT.

The initial dance given last night under the auspices of Alexandria Lodge, No. 758, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, at McBurney's Hall, was well attended, and greatly enjoyed. This dance is the first of a series which will be given by the Elks during the season. After the dance the party repaired to Rammel Bros.' dining rooms and partook of a bountiful repast.

How to Cure Chilblains.

"To enjoy freedom from chilblains," writes John Kemp, East Otisfield, Me., "I apply Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Have also used it for salt rheum with excellent results." Guaranteed for fever sores, indolent ulcers, piles, burns, wounds, frost bites and skin diseases. 25c at all drug stores.

All want the best. The Hess, Walk Over, Red Cross, and Queen Quality Shoes are to be had at J. A. Marshall & Bro's., 422 King street. nov21 tf

PERSONAL.

Mrs. George R. Hill and Mrs. J. C. Smoot have gone to Atlantic City to spend several weeks.

Miss Clara L. Talbott is spending a few days with Mrs. H. O. Pattison, at No. 214 west Grace street, Richmond.

Mrs. Charles H. Zimmerman is quite sick at her home.

Miss Emma Offterdinger, who has been on a month's visit to Mrs. Amy Griffin, has returned to her home in Lynchburg.

Adjutant General Charles J. Anderson, of Richmond, was in the city today.

One of the most popular of the new members of the House is Representative Charles C. Carlin, of Virginia. Almost any day you can see him guiding a delegation from "Ole Virginny" around the Capitol building, pointing out to them the many things of interest, including the well-known statesmen in the Senate and House, as well as those in Statuary Hall. He described the statues to a group of ladies as "Magnificent in their silence, an attribute to many of our laterday statesmen members of the Senate Club."—[Washington Herald.

THE LIBRARY.

The following books have been added to the Alexandria Library during the past month: The Angel of Forgiveness, Rosa N. Carey; A Victor of Salamis, William Stearns Davis; The Fortunes of the Landrays, Vaughan Kester; Miam Linda, Will H. Harben; Walled In, Elizabeth Stuart Phelps; The Good Comrade, Una L. Selberrad; The Car of Destiny, C. N. & A. M. Williamson; My Lady of the North, Randall Parrish; Money Magic, Hamlin Garland; Under the Crust, Thomas Nelson Page; Mistress of Bonaventure, Harold Bindloss; The Broken Road, A. E. W. Mason; Ancestors, Gertrude Atherton; Arethusa, F. Marion Crawford; With Juliet In England, Grace S. Steiner; The Shepard of the Hills, Harold Bell Wright; Richard Vaughn, Benjamin F. Cobb; The New Religion, Maarten Maartens; A Friend of the Queen, Paul Gaulot; Abbie Ann, George Madden Martin; Betty Wales Senior, Margaret Warde; Letitia, George Madden Martin; The Little Colonel's Hero, Annie Fellows Johnston.

FUNERAL.

The funeral services of the late Richards C. Triplett took place at noon today at his late home, "Round Hill," Fairfax county. The remains were brought to this city this afternoon. The funeral cortege entered Duke street from West End and proceeded to the Presbyterian cemetery, where the interment took place. Members of R. E. Lee Camp of Confederate Veterans attended the services at the cemetery. The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Lee and Rev. Dr. Wallis.

THE MOUNT JEZREEL CHURCH.

Judge Barley in the Corporation Court today enlarged the injunction he recently granted restraining Rev. Wilbanks from holding services in Mount Jezreel Church, colored, on north Payne street. By this action the members are also restrained from holding meetings in the church until the matter shall have been settled tomorrow.

VISITATION.

Mount Vernon Council, No. 10, Junior Order of United Americans, of Washington, will pay a fraternal visit to Alexandria Council, of this city, next Thursday night. There will be a banquet at the close of the meeting.

POLICE JUSTICE.

The term of Police Justice H. B. Caton will expire on Friday, and the matter of filling the position will be taken up by Judge Barley tomorrow. There are some rumors current as to the matter, but none of them have any foundation.

THE R, F. & P. RAILWAY.

The committees of the House and Senate on roads and internal navigation, sitting separately in executive session in Richmond, yesterday reported favorably the bill which provides for the repeal of the bill prohibiting the paralleling of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railway.

The Senate committee yesterday afternoon made a unanimous report favoring the repeal.

The House committee met last night and after two hours' debate a vote was taken, resulting 8 for the unconditional repeal, and 4 for the substitute bill offered by Delegate Evans, which prohibits the repeal bill from going into effect until the Richmond and Chesapeake Bay Railway Company completes its proposed extension to Tappahannock.

The committee reports will be voted upon by the General Assembly not later than Thursday of the present week.

COURT OF APPEALS.

The proceedings of the Supreme Court of Appeals yesterday were as follows:

Next cases to be called:

Hennings vs. Parson, Trucker's Manufacturing and Supply Company vs. White, Carter's administrator vs. Skillman et als., Tebbs vs. Van Patton and others, Selden vs. Williams, assignee, and Grubb Brothers vs. Moore, being Nos. 36, 38, 39, 40, 41 and 42 on argument docket.

Everybody's for February, which has been received from its publishers in New York, is full of interesting, forceful narrative. "Over the Florida Keys by rail" tells of the execution of Flagler's great plan. An American in London" serves as a good-natured answer to Bernard Shaw's skit recently published. Articles by Mary Garden and W. J. Henderson will interest music lovers. "The Quest of the Magic Carpet" and "The Romance of the Reaper" are most readable. Romance is well supported by contributions from Justus Miles Forman and Booth Tarkington, and six other good stories. "Why I Gave up the Fight," by Thomas W. Lawson, appears in this issue.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The City Council meets tonight.

A marriage license was issued in Washington yesterday to Raymond Moffitt and Florence Cornell, of Alexandria.

An automobile with a reckless driver has been racing through the streets during the past few days, contrary to law.

On Friday the 31st, from 4 to 6 p. m., there will be held at Lee Camp Hall a musical tea for the benefit of the mission of the Good Shepherd.

A young man named Davis whose head had been cut, went to the station house last night and told the officers on duty there that he had been assaulted by another young man named Roberts.

A sentence of four months in jail and a fine of $500 was imposed on George L. Goodacre yesterday by Justice Stafford, in Criminal Court No. 1 in Washington, when Goodacre pleaded guilty to an indictment against him charging the making of a handbook.

There was a false alarm of fire shortly after one o'clock this morning, which brought out the department. It was reported that a fire had broken out on King street, between Pitt and St. Asaph, but in was ascertained that the alarm was caused by a burning chimney.

Mr. Robert S. Barrett has been awarded the contract for printing and publishing the official programme of the Washington Birthday celebration to be held on February 22nd. Mr. Barrett is getting up a very handsome programme to be printed in colors and to be fully illustrated.

After spending three days investigating, the police of Washington at a late hour last night had not been able to discover a clew to the murder of Henry W. Reid. They said that they were still working on theories alone. Five of the prisoners arrested Saturday and Sunday were released. Funeral services for Mr. Reid will be conducted at the Baptist Church, Manassas, this afternoon. Interment will be in the Manassas cemetery. Mr. Reid was formerly proprietor of the Summit House at Brentsville.

The Alexandria Athletic Association will give their first dance tonight at Schuler's Hall. A large attendance is expected and a pleasant evening is assured all.

Our specialist makes no charge to determine if your sight may be improved or headache relieved. Virginia Eye Infirmary, 107 south Royal street.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Jan. 28.—The covering movement that [illegible] was the feature of yesterday's stock trading continued the chief market factor this morning, but some special buying was added to the demand from shorts that helped make the market strong and caused some material advances.

After the first hour trading on the exchange was again of an almost purely professional character. The only stock in which any weakness was displayed was "Big Four," which fell to 48½.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving remembrance of our dear baby, ALTON B. DEETON, who departed this life January 28, 1907—one year ago today.

We had a little treasure once,
He was our joy and pride;
We loved him, Oh perhaps too well,
For soon he slept and died.

BY HIS FATHER AND MOTHER.

THE annual meeting of the stockholders of the VIRGINIA SAFE DEPOSIT AND TRUST CORPORATION will be held at the banking house of said corporation on MONDAY, February 10th, 1908, at 12 o'clock noon, for the election of directors and for such other business as may properly come before said meeting.

Bad Stomach Trouble Cured.

Having been sick for the past two years with a bad stomach trouble, a friend gave me a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They did me so much good that I bought a bottle of them and have used twelve bottles in all. Today I am well of a bad stomach trouble.—Mrs. John Lowe, Cooper, Maine. These tablets are for sale by W. F. Creighton and Richard Gibson.

Badly Mixed Up.

Abraham Brown, of Winterton, N. Y., had a very remarkable experience; he says: "Doctors got badly mixed up over me; one said heart disease; two called it kidney trouble; the fourth, blood poison, and the fifth stomach and liver trouble; but none of them helped me; so my wife advised trying Electric Bitters, which are restoring me to perfect health. One bottle did me more good than all the five doctors prescribed." Guaranteed for blood poison, weakness and all stomach, liver and kidney complaints, by all druggists, fifty cents.

TUESDAY EVENING, JAN. 28, 1908.

He Always Remembered.

A smile lurked at the corners of Mrs. Lombard's mouth as she listened to the plaint of the school friend whom she had not seen for more than ten years. "I'm afraid, dear," she said, "you'll have to reconstruct some of your plans. You see, I married a forgetful man too."

"Why, you told me not ten minutes ago that your husband had never yet forgotten your birthday or your wedding anniversary," cried her friend, "and you told me you'd been married nearly eleven years! That's ever since the year after father took us all abroad."

"Yes," said Mrs. Lombard demurely, "I have. That's a long time, isn't it? But, you see, one thing was in my favor—I was born on the Fourth of July. Mr. Lombard couldn't very well forget the national holiday. And as soon as I'd found out how forgetful he was I decided to be married on another holiday.

"I suppose as you were abroad you didn't realize that the date of my wedding was unusual—people aren't often married on the 22d of February, I think. But, you see, by a little judicious planning I've been saved the necessity of reminding him about our anniversary."—Youth's Companion.

Sweetly Thoughtful.

The De Jones back lawn was a lawn in name only. It was really an arid desert—bald, so to speak—and in dry weather it was always as dusty as a motor track. To the astonishment of Mrs. De Smythe, who lived next door, she one day saw her devoted husband turning the garden hose upon the De Jones' "lawn."

"Well, I never!" she exclaimed. "I'm sure I wouldn't trouble to lay the dust in the De Jones' back yard, John, especially as they are such a hateful lot of gossips. Small thanks you'll get for your trouble anyway."

Hubby turned to his better half with a smile which told of mixed pleasure and vindictiveness.

"That's all right, my dear. Their darling little Fido was washed snow white this morning. Now he's out there rolling about like a barrel and rubbing the mud well into his fleecy coat. Trust your husband, my sweet, for real, unadulterated thoughtfulness!"—London Scraps.

Women and "Sport."

When a big shoot takes place in the coverts near one of our country houses the occasion is made a sort of society gathering. The ladies of the house party grace it with their presence, and other ladies of the neighborhood are glad to be allowed the honor of such company. Thus a large and fashionable party assembles, and while each beat is in progress the girls and women try to look on unmoved while a wounded hare kicks and squeals upon the ground for minutes which seem interminable to the sensitive onlooker until the beat is over and the dogs are loosed to finish off the cripples. And, though the hare's piteous shrieking makes its case seem the worst, the mere tumbling over and over of a wounded bird is a shocking sight to see as the time passes and no one goes forward to release it of its life.—London Mail.

Dodging Thirteen.

"When I lived in New York," writes a former New Yorker from Berlin, "there was a house near Central park which should have borne the number 13, but because of the superstition of the occupant permission was secured to place the number 11a or 15a over the door. I spoke of the circumstance a few days ago and learned that the thirteen superstition was more clearly marked here. In the instance mentioned by me an individual was concerned. Here it was the most important corporation in Wiesbaden. There is no No. 13 bathroom in any of the bathhouses, no No. 13 room in any hotel and no No. 13 place at any table d'hote. At Langenschwalbach the baths, under government control, also have bath cells No. 12a where they should be numbered 13."—New York Tribune.

A Worthy Antagonist.

"Did you visit any of the old caves when you were up in Scotland?" Jorkins was asked by a friend.

"Yes," replied Jorkins reminiscently, "and, by gum, we had to forcibly pull Maria out of one cave."

"Good gracious! She was fascinated by its beauty, I suppose."

"No, it wasn't beauty. You see, there is a wonderful echo in the cave, and Maria couldn't bear to think of the echo having the last word."—Liverpool Mercury.

His Eminence.

A French cardinal, being small of stature and hunchbacked at that, always gave the keenest repartee when addressed with "highness" and "eminence." "My highness is five feet two inches, and the eminence I carry on my back."

Seemed Incomprehensible.

Mrs. Somer—What delicately constructed things these big steamships are! Mr. Somer—Why do you say that? Mrs. Somer—Just think of the breaking of a screw disabling the whole ship.—Philadelphia North American.

Poor Jones!

Missionary—Can you give me any information about Deacon Jones, who labored among your people three years ago? Cannibal—Well, the last I heard about him he had gone into consumption.—Judge.

A Spanish proverb declares that "a papelitos (a paper cigar), a glass of clear water and a kiss from a pretty girl will sustain a man for a whole day."

Why Suffer from Rheumatism.

Do you know that rheumatic pains can be relieved? If you doubt this just try one application of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It will make rest and sleep possible, and that certainly means a great deal to any one afflicted with rheumatism. For sale by W. T. Creighton and Richard Gibson.

MUNICIPALUNACY.

By JOHN KENDRICK BANGS.

The greatest invasion of the rights of private parties as yet recorded is alleged to have occurred recently at Athens, N. Y., where, according to a dispatch from the local correspondent of a New York paper, a citizen unknown, dissatisfied with the quality of the tar pavements, covered them with feathers, with the usual result. This is the first time in the history of American municipalities that a town has been tarred and feathered. We hope the tendency will stop with this beginning, for we should not like to wake up some morning to find that our chosen city had either been lynched or ridden upon a rail.

The latest report of the government telegraphs and telephones of Great Britain shows a loss for the year of $5,000,000. The proportion of this loss properly borne by the telephone department is an indication that, as far as the taxpayers of Britain are concerned, talk is no cheaper than it used to be.

* *

Orange, Tex., is one of the latest towns to come in out of the wet. That city constructed a small waterworks system some years ago and operated it for several years prior to 1902 at a clear loss. In that year the city entered into a lease with a private company, and the other day the contract was revised and renewed for twenty years. We are glad to note that at least one Orange recognizes a lemon when it sees it and refuses to allow itself to be squeezed any longer.

* *

How would you like to eat butter made by the fair hand of a plumber? Not much, eh? Well, look out for the man who proposes to have your house supplied with gas made under the expert eye of the ward politician who has studied statesmanship and civics in the sacred precincts of a corner saloon. The particular kind of gas in which he excels may be the kind that cannot be blown out, but you will seldom find it illuminating until your tax bill comes in.

As to municipal ownership of street railways, did you ever stop to figure out the ownership of a road that would run, say, from Portland, Me., to Portsmouth, N. H., passing as it does through Biddeford, Saco, Kennebunk, the townships of Wells and York, thence through Kittery into Portsmouth? They used to say that it was a wise child that knew his own father, but he would be an idiot alongside of a railway that, passing through so many civic hands as that mentioned above, recognized its doting parent. Solomon himself would have been sorely taxed in rendering judgment in a case like that, and those who are familiar with the Scriptures are aware that in matters of that precise kind he was the wisest man on record.

Ex-Mayor Weaver of Philadelphia advocates the establishment of a municipal bank. It isn't a bad idea. It will enable the grafter in public office to get at the money of the people without all the wearisome and sordid detail at present necessary to the accomplishment of the same ends. Then, too, depositors who are careful about their accounts will know to a cent just how much they are being despoiled of, which in these days of indiscriminate municipal looting is truly an advantage.

Philadelphia Suburbanites Aggrieved.

When Philadelphia leased its gas works ten years ago, it retained one plant, which serves the Tacony and Holmesburg districts. In recording the action of a meeting of the citizens of these districts, when a committee was appointed to carry their grievance to the mayor, the Philadelphia Record says:

"The plant was built twenty-five years ago and is declared to be in miserable condition, affording an inadequate and inferior supply of gas, although a handsome profit is returned to the city each year by its operation. The capacity of the plant has not been improved to keep pace with the growth of that section of the city. Frequent breaks in the mains leave the householders without gas."

Sample Civil Service Examination.

This comes from Canada. A politician there was appointed to a position which technically had to be occupied by a lawyer, which the appointee was not. In order to obviate the technicality a board of examiners was appointed to question him as to his knowledge of the law. The first question by the board was, "What do you know about the law?" and the modest response was, "To tell the truth, I do not know a single thing." Whereupon the board intimated that the questioning was at an end and submitted a report on the examination, in which it was gravely stated, "We have examined the appointee as to his knowledge of the law, and to the best of our knowledge and belief he has answered all the questions with entire correctness."—Cincinnati Citizens' Bulletin.

Wise Counsel From the South.

"I want to give some valuable advice to those who suffer with lame back and kidney trouble," says J. R. Blankenship, of Beck, Tenn. "I have proved to an absolute certainty that Electric Bitters will positively cure this distressing condition. The first bottle gave me great relief and after taking a few more bottles I was completely cured, so completely that it becomes a pleasure to recommend this great remedy." Sold under guarantee at all drug stores. Price 50c.
